Chef Jacques Offerings Continued:

- Hands on Cooking Classes:

Looking for a different way to spend a Saturday? Gather your friends and family for a private hands-on cooking class with a four-star chef. Our in-the-kitchen classes are perfect for groups both large and small. Lead by Chef Jacques, you and your guests will learn how to prepare a delicious three-course lunch or dinner from start to finish.

Then, sit down together to enjoy the meal, along with wine pairings. Participants will learn cooking techniques and some of the secrets that have made L'Auberge Chez Francois Washington DC's favorite restaurant! Consider a hands-on class for your next birthday party, baby shower, anniversary, or any special event.

- Team Building/Hands-On Events: (Corporate)

Why not reward your employees with a custom Chef Jacques team-building hands-on and/or cooking class? We will design a corporate event that is right for you! Here, you and your team actually don aprons and cook side by side with Chef Jacques. Your staff or clients will spend an enjoyable and casual afternoon or evening enjoying, eating, and learning new skills together.

- To Your Health: Wellness Program

To Your Health is Chef Jacques's wellness program – an entertaining and humorous lecture/cooking demonstration. Jacques lively presentation focuses on the importance of seasonal food and products of the terroir for your health and well-being; and is a sure way to a healthier, happier and more successful life. He will impart his knowledge on why diet is such an important part of life, the most bio-available ways to prepare pure whole foods and how to enjoy and savor food (not forgetting a glass or two of wine). Chef Jacques has presented his wellness program, To Your Health, to numerous conferences and associations, including the American Heart Association's Woman to Woman Conference.

Chef Jacques believes that good food, good friends, and delicious food are the very best things in life. Love begins in the kitchen, don't you agree?

This is just a sampling of our offerings for you and your client. We will customize a culinary experience for individuals or businesses. Let us know how we can create the perfect event for you.
